

Besqab announces changes in the management team

Besqab AB (publ) ("Besqab") announce changes in the Management team. Hanna Bodbacka becomes Head of Operations Development with responsibility for sustainability, project planning, purchasing and digitalization. Sara Vesterlund takes over as Head of Business Development and Anna Åkerlund leaves the Management team to focus on the role of Head of Investment Relations.

Hanna Bodbacka, previously Head of Sustainability, will become Head of Operations Development. The aim is to further strengthen the integration of sustainability in all project operations and to increase efficiency in all processes and working methods through AI and digitalization.

Magnus Andersson, VD:

Sustainability is one of Besqab's core values and a strategically important part of our business. By integrating sustainability issues into project operations in an even more and coordinating this with project planning, purchasing and digitalization, we are taking the next step to work even more efficiently.

Anna Åkerlund, former Head of IR, Communications and HR, is moving to the role of Head of IR. Responsibility for HR and Communications is divided between Malin Semb-Josefson, newly recruited HR Manager, and Communications Manager Christina Durling. All report to the Management team.

Magnus Andersson, VD:

By focusing Anna's experience on the role of IR manager, Besqab as a listed company on the main list, it will further strengthen our relations with the capital market. I would also like to welcome Malin Semb-Josefson, who has taken over as the new HR Manager. With a new HR Manager in place, we will have the opportunity to develop our organization and our important employees.

By November 7, 2025, the Besqab Group Management will be:

Magnus Andersson, CEO
Hanna Bodbacka, Head of Operations Development
Emmy Fredenklo, Head of Legal
David Johansson, COO
Magnus Sundell, CFO
Anna Slätteby, Head of Sales and Marketing
Sara Vesterlund, Head of Business Development
