

Besqab and the City of Vaxholm broke ground for new homes and a new board walk at Norrberget

Besqab AB (publ) and the City of Vaxholm broke ground for new homes and a new board walk at Norrberget in Vaxholm. Besqab's CEO Magnus Andersson and the Chairman of the Municipal Board, Tina Runhem, broke ground together.

Magnus Andersson, CEO of Besqab:

We are proud to be able to start the fourth block with 70 new homes at beautiful Norrberget in Vaxholm. A block with space-efficient homes where we see great interest from a broader target group such as young families. At the same time, we are starting the nice board walk that close to the sea.

Tina Runhem (M), Chairman of the Municipal Board in Vaxholm

The development of Norrberget shows that it will be a fantastic area to live in, with good quality of life. Carefully developed blocks where the architecture has been extra important. The neighborhood will be an extension of the city center and will soon be surrounded by a nice board walk.
